Welcome to November at South Coast Plaza.

This fall's fashion narrative has been one of transformation – new designers, new directions and daring expressions of style. And South Coast Plaza has been part of that exciting conversation with newsmaking fashion arrivals, from the U.S. debut of Zara Man to the upcoming opening of Manolo Blahnik's first-ever West Coast boutique.

These exciting arrivals are joined by the recent unveiling of Bottega Veneta's striking new concept, Tory Burch's newly reimagined boutique, Skims' exclusive Orange County location, as well as the hotly anticipated arrivals of a fresh concept for Harry Winston, joined by Stone Island, Alo, Mango, Fuegoia 1833 Patagonia and many more.

November is, of course, also the start to the holiday season and the kick-off of beloved holiday traditions at South Coast Plaza. We have included the details of the events below as well as those of new and upcoming openings. For imagery, interviews or additional details, please don't hesitate to reach out. Wishing you a joyful start to the holiday season.
